Contents

Guest Editorial

Transitions to retirement
Kym Jenkins
123

Podcast

Andrew Amos interviews Carmelle Peisah
Andrew Amos
124

Transition to retirement series

Successful ageing for psychiatrists
Carmelle Peisah
126

A personal perspective from the UK: ageing and psychiatrists
Susan Mary Benbow
131

Closing up and moving on: a personal perspective of psychiatric practice closure
Diane Neill
134

Clinical assessment of the late-career medical practitioner
Chanuka Wijeratne
140

Physician health and wellbeing provide challenges to patient safety and outcome quality across the careerspan
Betsy White Williams and Philip Flanders
144

Later life transitions and changes in psychiatry
Jennifer A Randles
148

The ageing practitioner: ANZCA’s recommendations
AB Baker
151

The aging psychiatrist: lessons from our colleagues in surgery and anaesthesia
Bruce Philip Waxman
155

Neuroimaging

Neuroimaging in psychiatry: an update on neuroimaging in the clinical setting
Brian D Power, T Nguyen, B Hayhow and JCL Looi
157

Consultation Liaison

Prevalence and symptomatology of catatonia in elderly patients referred to a consultation-liaison psychiatry service
Jacqui Kaelle, Anju Abujam, Harsha Edirweera and Matthew D Macfarlane
164

Evaluation of consultation-liaison psychiatry referrals from a critical care unit of an outer suburban hospital
Dhayanthi Devasagayam and David Clarke
168

Self-amputation of the hand: issues in diagnosis and general hospital management
Alison Crawford, Anne PF Wand and Michelle A Smith
173

Schizophrenia

Incidence and risk factors for clozapine-induced myocarditis and cardiomyopathy at a regional mental health service in Australia
Daniel L Youssef, Pradeep Narayanan and Neeraj Gill
176

C-reactive protein: an early critical sign of clozapine-related myocarditis
Sasha R Fehily, Rosaria Forlano and Paul B Fitzgerald
181

Implementing cognitive remediation therapy (CRT) in a mental health service: staff training
Frances Dark, Ellie Newman, Meredith Harris, Alice Cairns, Michael Simpson, Victoria Gore-Jones, Harvey Whiteford, Carol Harvey and David Crompton
185
Perspective
Argentine psychiatry: report on the 30th Congress
Paul Brown

Case report
Development of an incipient Stevens–Johnson reaction while on a stable dose of lamotrigine
Gordon Parker
‘Mastication rage’: a review of misophonia – an under-recognised symptom of psychiatric relevance?
George Bruxner

Teaching and training
Medical student teaching in the private sector – An overlooked opportunity?
Cherrie A Galletly, Carol Turnbull and Robert Goldney

Self-assessment
Transition to retirement

Book reviews
Being Mortal: Medicine and What Matters in the End
Deborah Wearne
Welcome to the loony bin: 55 years inside psychiatry and the law, Anbel Services
Peter Shea

Correspondence
Back-to-base pulse oximetry to prevent inpatient suicide
Nicholas O’Connor and Michael Paton
The need for a Quality in Australian Mental Health Care study
Subramanian Purushothaman
MacDonaldisation of the Medicare schedule
Paul Brown
Vortioxetine in bipolar depression induces a mixed/manic switch
Catherine Maud

College Affairs
From the President
From the CEO
Talking with Dr Joel King
Obituary: Dr Warwick Keith Ashley
Obituary: Professor Graham Dene Burrows
Adolescent forensic psychiatry training in the Top End
Granting voting rights to Associates (trainees) and Affiliates
New Fellows
Upcoming RANZCP conferences and events